Monroe County government, with a workforce of approximately 4,600 full and part-time employees, has an annual operating budget close to $1.3 billion. SECTION 2 – SCOPE OF WORK

2.1 Background

The Monroe County Office of Probation-Community Corrections (Probation) is seeking proposals for an agency or organization to provide support services, juvenile justice education, and group facilitation services to at-risk, juvenile justice-involved, and probation-involved youth in Monroe County. The goals of the program are: Increase in the number of kids of color, specifically Black youth who are offered adjustment services; increase in the number of youth of color, specifically Black youth who engage with adjustment services; increase in the number of youth of color, specifically Black youth who successfully complete adjustment services; and decrease in the number of youth of color, specifically Black youth who are referred to presentment agency for petition.

Monroe County has historically lacked ongoing formal representation from youth with experience in the juvenile justice system when developing programs and making internal decisions that affect such youth. The selected Respondent and Monroe County will convene youth with this lived experience and ask them to share their unique perspectives and ideas at the time cases are being considered for a referral to Family Court. Including youth voice will allow Probation to make better informed decisions and allow Probation staff to consider strategies, ideas, or perspectives they may not have considered without the involvement of such youth.

Additionally, youth involved in the project will be given the opportunity to present to a group of diversion-involved peers at the Monroe County Juvenile Justice Seminar (JJS).

2.2 Qualifications

Respondents should demonstrate the ability to provide programming, support services, education, and mentoring to juvenile justice-involved youth. Respondents should have a knowledge and understanding of the New York State juvenile justice system. Respondents should be a community agency or non-profit organization.

Respondents should demonstrate experience in the delivery of programming, support services, education, and mentoring to juvenile justice-involved youth.

2.3 Scope of Work

1. The selected Respondent will assist Probation in convening a Youth Diversion Activities Review Group (the Review Group), which will consist primarily of approximately ten youth with juvenile justice system experience. Participating youth will be asked to provide thoughts and perspectives and will be tasked with developing and sharing potential strategies and solutions to address issues that led to the consideration of a referral to the Juvenile Prosecutor's Office. Juvenile justice cases will not include individually-identifying information and all juvenile justice confidentiality rules and regulations must be followed.
2. The selected Respondent will provide support services to youth participants. Support services will aim to reduce repeated involvement with the juvenile justice system and mitigate other issues such as school issues, mental, emotional and/or behavioral health issues as well as peer and family issues.
3. The selected Respondent will provide participating youth with education about the New York State juvenile justice system, including its theoretical framework, structure, and practical application.
4. The selected Respondent will assist youth in developing presentations for the Juvenile Justice Seminar.
5. Participating youth will receive a stipend for their involvement. The selected Respondent will manage and disperse payments to youth participants.

6. The selected Respondent will develop performance measures which can be reported on to demonstrate success. The selected Respondent will provide a monthly progress report to the lead facilitating probation officer and the Project Director.

In the event that the terms and conditions of this Agreement are not strictly enforced by the County, such non-enforcement shall not act as or be deemed to act as a waiver or modification of this Agreement, nor shall such non-enforcement prevent the County from enforcing each and every term of this Agreement thereafter.

Section 16. SEVERABILITY

If any provision of this Agreement is held invalid by a court of law, the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected thereby if such remainder would then continue to conform to the laws of the State of New York.
